

Jan Lüdert, Ph.D.

Programs

Master of Education in
Adult Education
(MEDAE)

Email: jluedert@cityu.edu

Phone: 206-239-4772

Education

- PhD Political Science, University of British Columbia
- MA International Relations, Australian National University
- BA Business Administration, Hamburg University for Economics and Politics

Professional Experience

Jan is an Assistant Professor in the School of Applied Leadership and Associate Program Director for the Master's program in Adult Education at City University of Seattle.

His research is policy focused and seeks to combine theory building with rigorous analysis and application.

Jan's interests include International Relations, Political Theory, International History, Intergovernmental Organizations, Non-State Actors, Transnational and Cyberspace Politics, Global Norms, Human Rights, Security Studies, Public Policy, Humanitarianism, Technology, Psychoanalysis, Leadership and Ethics.

He is deeply involved in Scholarship of Teaching and Learning research projects. Jan writes for the Ivory Tower, an E-International relations blog and is a founding member of Ilkmade, a social network site for politic science scholars, journalists and practitioners.